

PRIMARY CARE NETWORK (PCN) INDUCTION WORKSHOP

FOR NEWLY APPOINTED PCN ARRS STAFF

In this interactive 2.5 hour workshop delivered on the Training Hub Learning Management system delegates will:

- Explore how their roles may work in and across practices in their PCNs
- Be provided with an overview of the context for PCNs and Additional Roles, exploring how these roles fit within primary care and the wider health and social care agenda
- Learn from previous schemes to support new staff to operate effectively within and across networks and work as part of integrated multi-disciplinary teams
- Use knowledge sharing, self-reflection and group work, allowing time for discussion and questions
- Share experience and hints and tips to help embed roles effectively into the practices making up their PCNs
- Hear about the local Herefordshire and Worcestershire system including the role of the Primary Care Training Hub

Places are limited to 20 per session. Early booking is advised to avoid disappointment. Recordings of the session will be available if you are unable to make it.
